Location / Dates: The event took place in Gondomar/Porto (Portugal) from 17th to 20th June 2019.

Short description: The first event, held in the Municipality of Gondomar (Portugal), was the Official Opening of the Project and had the aim of creating interest around the initiative through advertising amplified by the presence of local and regional media. The main thematic of this event was to raise awareness about actual matters and create discussions and debates, specifically around the topics: "Migration from a political perspective", "Migrations and women" and "Migrants rights in the European Union".

One of the objectives, in line with the priorities of Europe for Citizens program, was also to create a strong and long-term transnational network open to the values of friendship, solidarity, intercultural dialogue and interaction between citizens with a bottom-up approach to the European Agenda.

Activities, using ICT tools, were scheduled, such as conferences, roundtables, case studies, question time, interactive workshop, project work and cultural visits, requiring the active participation of citizens with attention to migrants, associations, NGO's, politicians, experts, public administrations, cultural, social, and economic actors, and citizens never involved in this kind of projects. In addition, a working group was created to create new ideas for European projects, as well as other actions of the program for the integration of immigrants and the management of the migratory flow. The program was an opportunity for a greater exchange of methodologies, interaction between representatives and citizens, to have cooperation in sustainable perspective. The project encouraged citizens to reflect what type of society they want, while they strengthened their sense of belonging to the EU.

To ensure the widest possible public impact it was organized several events of dissemination and visibility of the project and the program "Europe for Citizens", as information material was provided with the logos of the program, EACEA and the European Union, such as information brochures, posters, banners...

Finally, at the end of the event, an evaluation questionnaire was carried out, especially to analyse the level of interest, participation, commitment, and impact among the participants, where new ideas and suggestions for future projects were also collected.
